VOL. II. NO. 230. CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, DECEMBER 20--21, 1896. PRICE, 5 CTS

THE EASTERN STALLION STAKES.

The National Stallion race of $20,000 for two-year-olds of 1898, to be run at the spring meeting of the Westchester Racing Association, has closed with 378 entries. The stake is built on the lines of E. Corrigan's stallion stakes which the local reign of terror wrecked. The conditions are for the progeny of stallions which were nominated on Sept. 7 of this year. Among the prominent entries are youngsters from the Brookdale stud, by Faverdale and Kinglike; from Marcus Daly, by Tammany, Montana and Inverness, and from James R. and F. P. Keene, by Tournament, St. Leonards, Chorister, Hindoo, and Sir Dixon. Among the dams in this are Cinderella, Princess Iskra, and Lady Invercoud.

B. G. Thomas is a big nominator. Among his representatives, which are by Himyar and Victory, are youngsters out of Dixietta, Astolat, Hazem, Sis Himyar and Queen Ban. Charles Reed, the head of the Fairview Stud, relies upon St. Blaise, Exile, Miser and Cheviot as sires. Among the dams are Woodflower, Emma, Nettie's last, Glencairn and Rebound. Gideon & Daly depend almost entirely upon His Highness, whose produce are from Luminary, Carrie C., Early Blossom and Rosa H. Two of their youngsters are by Ludwig, one of which is out of Tarentella. James B. Haggin is the largest contributor, his string claiming Dabbin, Golden Garter, Goldfinch, Islington, (brother to Isinglass), Midlothian, Sir Modred, Watercress, Tenny and Tyrant as sires. Among the matrons are Herondelle, Yum Yum, Connemara, Cachuca, Explosion, Firenze, Carrissima, Miss Woodford, Blithesome, Ethel, Faux Pas, Rosemary, Sweetbriar, Trade Dollar, La Favorita, Starlight and Maid Marian. S. Sanford & Sons are responsible for a small but select party. Among their entries are youngsters by Laureate—La Tosca; Potomac—Viola; Potomac—Lavinia Belle; Potomac—Aranza, and Potomac—Kitty Clark.

A. H. and D. H. Morris rely entirely upon St. Florian as a sire. Milton Young nominates youngsters by Strathmore, Esther and Hanover. Among the dams are Leap Frog, Maori, Aurania, Black Maria and Reclaire. W. H. Forbes has a baker's dozen by Meddler, while August Belmont depends principally upon Rayon d'Or. Among the matrons are Bliss, Felicia, Feu Follet, Fides, Lady Margaret, Her Grace and Toscana. The Oneck Stable has one entry, by G. W. Johnson—Fanny Elssler. Galway's half a dozen nominations are by his two favorites, Belvidere and Linden. The dams include Madge Stuart, Elthorn Lass, Gleam and Adele. Clay & Woodford's stud is represented by Hindoo and Sir Dixon. Among the mares are Cherry Blossom, LaEsmeralda, Ricochet and Brambleta. Five of E. J. Baldwin's nominations are by Emperor of Norfolk, while Gano is responsible for the remaining entry. Clara D, Dolly L and Chloe A are three of the dams. Lucien O. Appleby has a string of twenty, all by Knight of Ellerslie. The most prominent mares are Miss Primrose, Lizzie Pickwick, Miss Clemency, Moss Rose (Henry of Navarre's dam), Diadem and Aquilon.

RACING GOSSIP.

The "news" from St. Louis, by wire, informs the Chicago public that "Joe and Alex Ullman and other Chicago bookmakers" are about to open pool rooms in St. Louis on the strength of the Missouri Supreme Court decision of Tuesday last. The same "news" also declares that Barney Schreiber will look over the ground and open a room. What rot! Joe Ullman is in San Francisco by this time. He started Monday night—not by way of St. Louis. Barney Schreiber is on the ocean and his way is far from a cheap pool room in jade St. Louis. Great is the St. Louis news fakir in invention and injury to racing.

We are told, on the authority of "Black & Blue" that the Jockey Club will not reinstate Riley Grannan. Whom does "Black & Blue" speak for, in addition to "Black & Blue?" The nom-de-plume is familiar. It has been associated with turf error and superficiality for many a moon. The Jockey Club—Riley Grannan matter is the Jockey Club's and Riley Grannan's. But the former's published bill of particulars is partial, faulty and generally out of line. It must be made cleaner and stronger before the racing public will swallow the Jockey Club's decision against Grannan—and indecision against some more folks.

There's superficial advocacy of the Jockey Club's recent "raise the weights" action in the west. It goes to the point of telling that Secretary Hopper favors it and has graded the scale to its standard for the benefit of the Turf Congress meeting to be held next month. All such talk ought to be "rot." It probably is. The scale of weights are all right except that 3 lbs. in October and 5 lbs. in November should be added to the two-year-old weights. The talk about a raise in the scale increasing the crop of jockeys is all bosh. The jockey who cannot fit into the scale is a has been. The useful actor in every line of business fits himself mentally and physically to the conditions of his business. If the scale was raised to 150 pounds there would still be a band of overweights over its edge shouting for a new deal. There is no need of a general raise in the weights for jockey purposes no matter what plaints the superficial screamers make.

GRAND TELEGRAPHIC WORK.

The service rendered by the Western Union Telegraph Company is a marvelous service. The Oakland, Cal., race track is nearly 2500 miles from Chicago. Its horses raced from 2 until 5 p. m. Thursday. DAILY RACING FORM has a keen, high class man at the California tracks. At 7:25 Thursday night the Oakland racing chart was on DAILY RACING FORM's wire and at 8:05 the full chart of five races and Friday's entries were delivered. It is true that the service was over a thick and modern direct and duplex wire from Oakland, Cal., to 126 Fifth Avenue, Chicago. It was the evidence of the Western Union's noble efficiency. Racing chart figures are full of intricacy and fine items. They were, however, taken by Western Union experts. DAILY RACING FORM of Friday, on account of such magnificent service, was on its presses at 9:45 p. m. This and that paper talks, now and again, of enterprise. But what about five form tables and six entry groups wired 2500 miles by 8:05 p. m. the same day?

FORM, though, doesn't blow horns. It just gets what its readers want.
